PHILIPPINE NURSES ASSOCIATION OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA POLICY & PROCEDURE

SUBJECT: Practice		POLICY NO. P3
EFFECTIVE DATE: October 2008		REVIEW DATE: April 2016
POLICY OWNER: Assigned Board Member	EB APPROVAL DATE: October 2008	REVISED DATE:

PURPOSE:

- To provide a mechanism for review and analysis of issues affecting Philippine Nurses Association of Southern California (PNASC).
- To establish ways to formulate for, and recommends, to the Executive Board, a position statement reflective of the Association.

POLICY:

Representing the Organization:

- I. No member of PNASC Executive Council will make a statement or take public position in the name of the organization that is contrary to, or creates a misimpression of a policy or position established by the Board.
- II. When speaking or taking a public position in your behalf or on behalf of another organization, members will avoid giving impression that they are representing the organization.
- III. No member of PNASC Executive Council will give permission for his/her membership or position in the Executive Board to be used in any manner such as the letterhead or any other official publications or documents of any other organization unless such use has been approved by the Executive Board.

Organizational Assets:

- I. The members of the Executive Board are authorized to use assets that are made available for delivery of current programs, including fundraising and administrative activities necessary to carry out the mission and achieve the goals of PNASC.
- II. The right to restrict, lien, pledge, encumber, transfer PNASC's assets is within the powers of the Executive Council.

Conflict of Interest (COI):

I. Preamble:

Every member elected or appointed to a position of authority has a duty of loyalty to and must act in the interests of, PNASC. A COI is a situation that exists when someone's loyalty maybe divided between the first organization and a second person or organization. No one should be faulted merely because a COI situation exists. A problem arises only when the member takes action related to the conflict. A member in a COI situation may act appropriately by respecting his/her duty of loyalty, or may act inappropriately by violating it. It is the action – the behavior – that is or is not appropriate.

II. General Policy:

As part of our duty of loyalty to PNASC, members of the Executive Board, have an obligation and responsibility:

- A. To disclose any conflict or potential COI on any issue promptly as such conflict arises
- B. To abstain from participation in FINAL deliberations and decisions concerning the issue
- C. To abstain from public comment upon that issue

III. Definition:

- A. A COI situation exists when the interest or concerns of any member or said member's immediate family, or any party, group or organization to which said member has allegiance, may be seen competing with the interests or concerns of PNASC. Members should be keenly sensitive to any interpretation of their actions which create the appearance of COI situation and should seek to avoid any such appearance.
- B. Members of the Executive Board are responsible for self-identifying those individuals that the member considers to be "immediate family members" in this policy

IV. Applicability:

This policy applies to all members of PNASC, including leaders of the Executive Council who are authorized to vote in the decision of the organization and all independent contractors such as the Certified Public Accountant.

V. Existence of COI Situations or Resolution of Conflict:

- A. The person involved is entitled to a due process to address COI issues against him/her.
- B. If the person involved is a member of the Executive Council, he/she will abstain from voting.
- C. When there is doubt as to whether there is a COI exists, the matter shall be decided by a majority vote of the members of the Executive and Advisory Council. The Executive Council's decision will be considered final. The decision will be communicated to the involved person by the President.
- D. When there is disagreement on whether a COI exists, the decision making process will be resolved by members of the Advisory Council. The Advisory Council's decision will be considered final. The decision will be communicated to the involved president by the Immediate Past President.
- E. A decision of factual inappropriate behavior and a COI does exists will lead to reprimand, censure, suspension or termination removal from office or membership.

Standards and Rules of Conduct:

- I. PNASC will strive to meet the needs of its members and will not provide services in direct conflict with its mission and goals as stated in its bylaws and Philippine Nurses Association of America's (PNAA) bylaws.
- II. PNASC is responsible for treating its constituents with utmost respect consistent with its mission and goals and as stated by our bylaws.
- III. Each member is responsible for upholding the association's commitment to professional codes of conduct and for acting in an ethical manner.
- IV. Every member is entitled to a due process to address violations or deviations against the Practice policy. PNASC will respect each member's cultural, psychosocial, spiritual values, dignity and autonomy.
- V. Officers and members will observe and maintain confidentiality of sensitive information. PNASC will provide information and share data only upon approval of the Executive Council.
- VI. PNASC will follow well-established standards and Rules of Conduct as adopted by other professional organizations such as the American Nurses Association (www.nursingworld.org) and International Council of Nurses (see attachment).
- VII. Resolution of conflict will be conducted fairly and objectively.
- VIII. Meeting Rules of Conduct:
 - a. The meeting will be conducted with the Roberts Rules of Order (see attachment)
